LOVE IS IN THE AIR!

AH, LOVE, 'TIS VALENTINE'S DAY, FEB. 14

"How do I love thee? Let me count the ways." And Elizabeth Barrett Browning counted those ways beautifully, poetically for her Robert.

Zelda Fitzgerald described her love for F. Scott this way: "I look down the tracks and see you . . . hurrying to me. Without you, dearest, I couldn't see or hear or feel or think — or live."

Flaubert presented love this way: "This is the hour when, alone amidst everything that sleeps, I open the drawer that holds my treasures. I look at your slippers, your handkerchief . . . your portrait. I reread your letters . . . my heart expands in the night, suffused with a dew of love."

Finally, some very sophomoric Romeo with pencil in hand sent this to his love: "I think if you every day — you are always on my mine."

With Valentine's Day just a few breaths and a kiss or two away, one must be careful not to be a sophomoric Romeo. And though most Romeos (Juliets, too) are not poets, the words of love and caring and concern can be expressed in many ways . . .

Give flowers, even a single rose speaks volumes . . . Send a Valentine's Day card . . . Help with his or her yucky chores . . . Take your love out to dinner maybe even dancing . . . Phone that certain someone unexpectedly and speak those most beautiful words in the world: I love you . . .

Yes, Valentine's Day, Feb. 14, is a good excuse to make living even more wonderful.
